Two Departments Move To New Quarters

FEBRUARY WAS MOVING month for the Alberta Department of Agriculture as all Divisions which were housed in the Legislative Building shifted to new quarters.

The majority of the Department is now located in the new Agricultural Building (formerly the A.G.T. Building) on 107 Street, in Edmonton. The second and third floors of the building are occupied by the Water Resources Division; the fourth floor contains the offices of the Minister, Deputy Minister and Secretary; the Accounts Office and the Program Development Division are on the fifth floor; the Plant Industry Division and Veterinary Services Division occupy the sixth. The seventh and eighth floors are the new home of the Extension and Colleges Division.

The Farm Purchase Board Office and the Animal Industry Division will move, early in March, to the 100th Avenue Building in Edmonton, where they will join the Agricultural Economics Division.

THE DEPARTMENT OF Youth has moved from temporary quarters in the Legislative Building to new offices in the C.N. Tower, 100 St. and 104 Ave., Edmonton.

The department offices are located mainly on the 26th floor. Some space on the first floor is occupied by the Recreational Branch, and there is storage space on the 4th floor.

The new telephone number of the Department of Youth is 422-8205.

Massive moving job gets underway as Department of Agriculture records are packed in cartons preparatory to their move to their new Edmonton locations, the Agricultural Building (right), and the 100th Avenue Building.

Official Alberta Banner Approved

THE ALBERTA CREST on a royal ultramarine blue background has been officially recognized by an Alberta Government Order-in-its various media denotes government authorship, authority and responsibility and therefore cannot be used outside these terms of reference without previous permission from the government.

ROYAL ULTRAMARINE BLUE

The solid-colour blue on this page is Royal Ultramarine Blue, officially approved for the Alberta Banner. The Department of Public Works is preparing specifications for its production, and manufacturers may obtain interim information from the office of the assistant deputy minister, Terrace Building, Edmonton.

The current amendment to the regulations requires that the crest be reproduced in proper proportions and true colours, comply with the standards of good taste and appear only as specified above. This amendment will expire on the 30th of June, 1968, when use of the crest will again be limited to government agencies.

Council as the official Banner for the province. The terms of reference and specifications for the Banner are listed in the Order as follows:

"1. that a Banner bearing the Arms of Alberta be adopted as the official banner of the Province of Alberta;

"2. that the colour of the Banner be royal ultramarine blue;

"3. that the Banner be in proportions of two by length and one by width;

"4. that the Arms of Alberta be carried in the centre of the Banner and extend to seven-elevenths of the width of the Banner;

"5. that the reproduction of the Arms of Alberta be true as to form and colour, as set out by Royal Warrant dated May 30, 1907;

"6. that the colouring of the Banner and of the Arms of Alberta be effected by means of fast permanent dyes;

"7. that the Banner may be used by citizens of the Province and others in a manner befitting its dignity and importance but no other banner or flag that includes the Alberta Arms may be assumed or used."

Permit Broader Use Of Alberta's Crest In Centennial Year

WIDER USE OF the Alberta Crest during Centennial Year without prior permission from the Alberta Department of the Provincial Secretary is now possible following an Order-in-Council passed by the provincial government. Reproduction of the crest is nevertheless restricted to those occasions when it will appear in conjunction with those of the other Canadian provinces and that of Canada itself.

The Alberta Crest, or armorial bearings, should be regarded as the "trade mark" of the provincial government and it is accorded the same carefully controlled use. Its appearance in

Alberta '67-68 Budget Reaches $834,428,491

ALBERTA'S BUDGET for the coming fiscal year is expected to be $834,428,491, which appears to be an increase of $152,452,580 over this year's expenditure of $681,975,911. Actually, the increase is $103,317,032 over the current year, due to the fact that, to bring them into conformity with Public Accounts, next year's estimates are stated on a gross basis, while this year's budget was given on a net basis. This change was made on the recommendation of the Public Expenditure and Revenue Study Committee.

Of the total expenditures for 1967-68, $630,065,493 will be spent on Income Accounts, $188,762,998 on Capital Account and $15,600,000 on Statutory Payments. Total estimated revenues for the coming year are $766,952,024, with $674,881,505 from Income Account and $92,070,519 from Capital receipts for an estimated deficit of $67,476,467 which will be paid from surplus funds that have accumulated from the operations of the Government in previous years. No new taxes will be introduced and no direct borrowing will be required.

Major increases will be received by the Departments of Education, Health, Welfare, Highways, Public Works and Agriculture. The Northern Development Council will receive additional funds to continue the acceleration of development in the north of the province, and a new appropriation has been allocated for urban renewal and subsidized housing.

The appropriation for servicing the public debt rose slightly from $2,023,340 to $2,072,270. At March 31, 1966, main reserves amounted to $622,031,000, an increase of some $78,000,000 during the year. Of this total, $223,000,000 are invested in various loans and advances, and $399,031,000 in cash, short term investments and in Federal and Provincial Debentures.

AGRICULTURE

To allow the Department of Agriculture to widen its scope of research and assistance in all phases of the agriculture industry, estimates have been increased from a gross expenditure of $14,004,218 for the current year to $17,699,176.

Substantial sums have again been appropriated for A.R.D.A. programs, particularly in the fields of depressed areas, pasture development and water conservation and control. A sum of $4,159,660 has been allotted to the development of water resources and planning the orderly use of water supplies in years to come. In addition, the department will spend $1,143,640 on rehabilitation in irrigated areas and $1,000,000 on land and forest utilization. Under A.R.D.A., $2,576,519 is expected as a reimbursement from the Federal Government.

The capital estimates of the Department of Public Works include $8,129,000 for construction at the Agricultural Colleges, including a $2,500,000 students' residence at Olds, plus $3,700,000 for a consolidated laboratory in Edmonton.

ATTORNEY GENERAL

The total estimated expenditure for the Department of the Attorney General has been increased by $2,722,990 to $17,413,570. Of this, $5,857,290 will be required to operate gaols and corrective institutions, $4,209,240 for R.C.M.P. protection, and increased amounts to operate the Land Titles Offices and to provide necessary legal services.

Fees under The Land Titles Act are expected to yield $2,700,000 and fines are estimated at $2,360,000, with additional revenues expected from fees for various other legal services.

EDUCATION

The expenditure of $207,738,790 for the Department of Education represents nearly 25 per cent of the total budget. Included is a contribution of $118,300,000 to the Foundation Program of School Financing, plus $13,000,000 for construction of vocational high schools, of which 50 per cent will be recovered from the Federal Government. It is intended to contribute $1,600,000 to the Teachers' Retirement Fund and $1,800,000 to the Canada Pension Plan.

A total of $9,029,690 has been included for the operation of the Northern and Southern Institutes of Technology, along with $5,000,000 for construction and operational cost grants for Junior Colleges. Assistance to University and vocational students will be increased to $2,770,130. The amount toward operational costs of Alberta's universities is $42,420,000, and $180,000 has been added for the activities of the Universities Commission.

A total of $48,943,700 has been placed in the Public Works capital estimates for major educational construction. Of this, $43,950,000 will be required for buildings on the university campuses, and a further $4,302,700 will be spent on construction at the Institutes of Technology. Vocational and industrial training centres are planned at Edmonton, Calgary and Fort McMurray.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Estimated expenditures for the Executive Council during 1967-68 will be $15,950,860, $2,281,836 higher than the current year. Receipts for the Public Service Pension Fund and the Local Authorities Pension Fund are expected to amount to $9,010,000, and payments through pensions and refunds will total $5,300,000.

The Research Council of Alberta will continue its studies and research through the provision of $2,599,430, and the Alberta Human Resources Council will be established at a cost of $500,000.

The capital appropriation for the Northern Alberta Development Council has been increased to $5,500,000, to be used to further develop northern Alberta transportation facilities.

HIGHWAYS

The total highways program, requiring expenditures of $89,802,600, can best be illustrated by the following table:

Maintenance, Grants and Administration	1967-68	1966-67	Increase

Note that total grants to municipalities amount to $26,600,000 including $9,000,000 to assist cities in building freeways, expressways and other structures, and $1,000,000 for a new program to materially share in the cost of improving roads in towns and villages. The increased appropriation for construction includes $1,000,000 for construction of bridges in municipalities.

INDUSTRY & DEVELOPMENT

The 1967-68 expenditures for the Department of Industry and Development total $2,449,330, an increase of $219,980, to assist in maintaining and accelerating the province's industrial growth through a policy of close relationship with and assistance to industry.

Community development, particularly in the northern part of the Province, will be continued on a larger scale and the policy of providing native housing will be expanded.

	$168,872,850	$153,017,420	$15,855,430

The total cost of the extensive program of construction included in the capital estimates of the Department of Public Works is $13,871,100; $10,059,100 for additions and renovations to government hospitals (including $1,000,000 to commence construction of a hospital in Calgary), and $3,500,000 to complete the cancer clinic hospital in Edmonton.

PUBLIC WELFARE

The estimated gross amount to be required for public welfare next year is $56,583,370, against which will be applied Federal reimbursements to bring the Department's net cost down to $31,015,785, a very small increase over last year.

	Estimates 1967-68	Estimates 1966-67	Increase or Decrease*

	$56,583,370	$51,090,350	$5,493,020

Provision has been made in the Public Works estimates to build an additional four senior citizens homes at a cost of $1,650,000, with $389,500 for repairs and replacements in homes now in use. Other expenditures will be $960,000 for construction of a single men's hostel in Calgary, $875,000 for additions to the Diagnostic and Receiving Centre, Edmonton, and an additional $697,800 for other types of welfare homes.

PUBLIC WORKS

Estimated expenditures for the Department of Public Works are $143,887,240, an increase of $9,245,580 over last year. Capital expenditures are estimated at $120,234,400, apportioned as follows:

Construction of Public Buildings

Agriculture	$ 12,077,100
Attorney-General	1,071,000
Education	48,943,700

Appropriations for maintenance of public buildings and power plants have increased from $17,322,370 to $21,025,180. Grants to municipalities in lieu of taxes will require $1,900,000.

TREASURY

Estimated revenue for the Treasury Department shows an increase of $67,669,900 over the 1966-67 figure to $242,393,150. Estimated expenditures total $51,567,660, an increase of $1,619,502.

Receipts from The Alberta Income Tax Act are expected to increase from $84,700,000 to $109,600,000; interest on invested reserves are estimated to be $23,242,650; and profits from the Alberta Liquor Control Board are expected to increase by $3,561,000 to $35,161,000. Treasury Branch earnings and profits are estimated to be $10,250,000 with provisions made for $8,623,000 in expenses, leaving a net profit of $1,627,000.

Unconditional grants of $25,085,204 will be made to municipalities, and the home-owner's tax discount will cost $12,000,000. The employers' contribution to the Canada Pension Plan will require $1,300,000 and $550,000 has been provided as the government's share of the cost of prepaid medical insurance.

Under statutory authority, $35,000,000 is expected to be paid for construction on the Alberta Resources Railway, and further substantial advances will be made under The Farm Purchase Credit Act, The Alberta Commercial Services Act and The New Towns Act, as well as an expected $5,000,000 in loans to municipalities under the authority of The Municipal Land Loans Act.

Capital receipts amounting to $51,348,600 represent repayment of advances from reserves, including $20,000,000 from the Alberta Resources Railway Corporation and the sale or redemption of $20,000,000 debentures from the special investment fund.

YOUTH

The newly-established Department of Youth is expected to have a total expenditure of $1,315,570, to be used in programs for youth training and activities, such as 4-H Clubs, Junior Forest Wardens and Junior Forest Rangers. Recreational activities will be developed and assistance will be given to municipalities to operate local athletic boards. Provision has also been made to conduct research for the purpose of establishing and developing new programs to encourage constructive youth activity.

MUNICIPAL ASSISTANCE

Direct financial assistance to municipalities totals $196,326,954, an increase of $19,905,508 over a revised estimate for the current year. Indirect assistance to municipalities through provincial health programs and other services is estimated to be $94,643,615. Direct and indirect assistance combined are expected to amount to $290,970,569 or 34.87 per cent of the total budget.

Reports By Charities Help Establish Validity

ALBERTANS WHO contributed to the approximately $6 million in charitable donations made in the province during 1966 can be sure that their money went to a legitimate cause, thanks to The Public Contributions Act, which requires organizations to establish the validity of their fund-raising, thereby offering a measure of protection against campaigns for fake charities.

The Act makes obligatory the recording of four facts which every donor has the right to know about any charitable fund: the purpose of the campaign, the financial objective, the cost of fund-raising, the net proceeds and their distribution.

An organization or individual conducting a campaign for charitable purposes with an objective of $250 or more is required to apply for authorization to canvass for funds, and the facts which are of public interest must be recorded on the application form, along with the names of the officers of the organization and those in charge of the campaign. A regularly audited financial statement must also be filed when the campaign is completed, or at the end of each fiscal year if the campaign is continuous. This is required to show the amount of money received, the expenses incurred, the disposition of the proceeds and the assets and liabilities of the organization. This financial statement is published in the annual report of the Alberta Department of Public Welfare.

The Act does not apply to the soliciting of funds by an organization only from members and their immediate families, spouses, parents and children. This is to avoid intrusion into the privacy of such groups as churches and schools.

Organizations involved in collecting funds have co-operated extremely well. Several have requested assistance with programs to finance their projects more efficiently and effectively.
